Annual Mixed Doubles Tennis Tourney Held At F.R.C.C.

Cloudy skies and March winds was the setting for the Annual Mixed Doubles Tennis Tournament at Falling River Country Club May 27 and 28.

Thirteen couples entered the tournament. Play began Saturday morning, playing eight game pre-sets with double elimination.

Playing ended Saturday evening with six teams still in competition to begin again at 2 p.m. on Sunday.

Sunday's matches were the best 2 out of 3 sets. Spectators enjoyed some hard matches between Mary Lou Harrison, Larry White Vs. Sherry Tillery and Mitch Eggleston, with Tillery-Eggleston winning 6-1, 6-3; Teresa Lettner - Tommy Wingfield versus Carolyn Smith and Fred Roberts with Lettner - Wingfield winning 4-6, 6-2, 6-4. Tillery - Eggleston winning 6-2, 3-6, 6-1.

The finals match was played at 3:30 p.m. with Ruby and Sam Ferguson taking on Jackie Smith and Sam Kerr. The finals went three sets with Jackie Smith and Sam Kerr winning 6-3, 6-7, 6-2.

After Saturday evening matches, the players enjoyed an outing at the Ground Round.

The next adult tournament is the Ladies and Men's Doubles June 24 and 25.

August Golf Tourney Planned At Ivy Hill

LYNCHBURG, May 23 - The Mid-Atlantic Professional Golf Association's Champions h i p Tournament will be held at Ivy Hill Golf Club Aug. 28 - 30 with a celebrity Pro-Am Round to be played on Sunday, August 27. This is the first time a Mid-Atlantic tournament has been held in the Central Virginia area.

The tournament will be open to pros and amateurs from throughout the Mid-Atlantic section which includes Virginia, Maryland, and the District of Columbia. The Pro-Am event, which will feature a celebrity exhibition round, will be open to local amateurs.

The tournament is being sponsored by Lynchburg Area Lions Clubs., Fidelity American Bank and Ivy Hill Golf Club. The proceeds from the event will go to the Lions Sight and Hearing Fund for the Lynchburg Area, and none of the proceeds will be divided among the participating clubs. This fund is completely separate from the Floyd Ward Children's Sight Conservation Fund which is currently administered by the Lynchburg Host Club. More than 300 Lions will participate in the tournament through their various clubs which include the Lynchburg Host Club,Lynchburg Breakfast Club, Fort Hill Club,Forest Club, and Brookville - Timberlake Club. Allen Harvey, owner of Ivy Hill Development and Golf Club, commented on the tournament. "Last year, we were proud to host the 1977 State PGA Open, and this year, we are delighted to host the Mid-Atlantic PGA Championship. We look forward not only to hosting these tournaments, but other tournaments on the national level in the future."

The advertising sales campaign for the souvenir programs is now underway, and all advertisers must be committed by June 15.

F. R. C. C. Member-Guest Tourney Set For June 17-18

More than sixty teams are registered to play in the annual member-guest golf tournament at Falling River Country Club on June 17-18.

The golf activities committee will continue to accept teams as alternates to replace teams that are forced to withdraw, so if any male member over 18 would like to enter a team he should contact Warren Moser, Club Professional.

Since more than thirty teams requested afternoon play on Saturday, it would be helpful for the committee to know of anyone who would be willing to switch to morning play. This information can be given to anyone at the club, 352-7037, and it will be noted on the register.

Jerry Conner Wins Patrick Henry Invitational Golf Tourney

Jerry Conner fired a final round 67 to take first place in the Championship Flight of the first Patrick Henry Invitational Golf Tournament at Winton Country Club in Amherst.

Conner had a 54 hole score of 219 on the Par 71 course. Proceeds from the tourney will go to the Patrick Henry Planetion (boy's home) in Brookneal.

The champion received a reproduction of Patrick Henry's Chair (shown above) which is being reproduced in limited numbers as a fund raising project. The chair is mahogany like the original which dates about 1763. It is of the Chippendale style and is known as the "Roundabout Chair". During his last illness, Patrick Henry was in less pain sitting than reclining and was sitting in his chair when the end came June 6, 1799.

Appomattox Loses Two Games

Appomattox lost two games last week to Amherst by scores of 11-10 and 12-11.

In the first game Appomattox scored 6 runs in the first inning, but the Amherst Lancerettes, seeded 2nd in the tournament, took advantage of 10 hits, 4 walks and 9 costly errors to beat Appomattox 11 - 7 in the Semi-finals held at Amherst on Wednesday, May 24th.

Amherst scored 4 runs in the first inning, but the Raiderettes, never giving up, scored 2 in the second and 3 in the 4th inning to take the lead. But errors once again plagued the girls, and Amherst went on to score 4 in the 6th.

Tamara Cash lead Amherst with 3 hits and 2 RBI's. Connie Murray and Debbie Smith led with 2 hits each for the Raiderettes. Annette Carter and Angie Richardson had a double and Vanessa Smith a triple.

District Playoffs

Raiderettes Win One - Lose One

The Appomattox Raiderettes, seeded 6th in the Seminole District Softball Playoffs, started the tournament at 3rd seeded William Campbell on Tuesday, May 23. The Raiderettes, having been beaten by the Generalettes in two previous outings this year, knocked out 17 hits for a 15 - 10 victory.

With two outs in the first, the Raiderettes scored 6 big ones. S. Handy ran out an infield single. Following a walk to D. Smith, R. Martin drove in a run with a single. Another walk to V. Smith was followed by a double to right field off the bat of Angie Richardson. S. Godsey singled, Belter walked and C. Murray drove in the 6th run with a single.

But the Generalettes got 2 runs in the second and 4 in the third to tie the game at 6 all. With rain beginning to get heavy, the Raiderettes cut off rallies in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings.

The top of the sixth was all Appomattox as they rapped out 6 hits, scored 7 hits including a 3 run homer by A. Carter. They added 2 more in the 7th and then stopped a 4 run rally by William Campbell in the bottom of the 7th.

The Raiderettes were lead by C. Murray, A. Carter, and R. Martin with 3 hits each. Carter and A. Richardson and 3 RBI's each.
